Example

The below examples are provided for illustrative purposes only. Each claim will be assessed individually, based on the facts relative to the specific claim

Example A:	Example B:	Example C:
Anna books accommodation to the Sunshiny caravan park. Her Trip with the family is in summer, which is 3 months away. A week before the start of the family Trip, her son has an accident at school and breaks his leg. Unfortunately, he needs surgery and the Doctor confirms its best to be at home for the recovery. Anna paid $1,200 for the accommodation. The Excess is $500. a) Check the total cover limits and sub-limits in Schedule of Benefits. The amount claimable is below these limits b) Deduct the Excess of $500 Calculation for the amount payable by Us: Accommodation – Excess = amount payable $1,200 – $500 = $700	Jane travels to Brazil and while she is in Brazil her laptop is stolen. She reports the theft to the police and provides Us with the required documentation. Jane paid $6,000 for her laptop 12 months prior to this Event. Jane's Excess is $500. a) Establish original purchase price of the laptop: $6,000 b) Apply depreciation*: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• 2.5% per month for 12 months = 30% depreciation.• 30% of $6,000 = $1,800 total depreciation. c) Establish current value of the laptop by subtracting depreciation from the purchase price of the laptop <ul style="list-style-type: none">• $6,000 – $1,800 = $4,200 d) Check the total and per item limit shown in the Schedule of Benefits and select the lesser of the current value of the laptop or the item sub-limit. If the per item limit is $1,000 which is lower than the current value $4,200, We take the lower number = $1,000 e) Deduct the Excess of $500 f) Calculation for the amount payable by Us: Limit per item – Excess = amount payable $1,000 – $500 = $500	Rob and his wife travelled to France for 14 days. On the 4th day of their trip, Rob slips down the stairs at the hotel. Thankfully it's not a major injury, but he did twist his ankle and needs to seek medical attention. He was billed $500 for the doctor's appointment including some scans and medication. On the 8th day, Rob had his laptop stolen which is worth $1,000. Unfortunately, on the last day of their trip, Rob's wife then lost her smartphone. When they return to Australia, Rob submitted a claim for the 3 Events. As Rob and his wife had 3 Events during their trip to France, an Excess would be applied to each of the Events (and Covered Persons). Claim 1: $500 Medical costs – $500 excess = $0 amount payable Claim 2: $1,000 laptop – $150 depreciation – $500 excess = $350 amount payable Claim 3: $900 smartphone – $500 excess = $400 amount payable Total amount payable by Us = $750

*For depreciation details, please review Section G – Personal Baggage, Valuables, Money and Documents Cover

Pre-Existing Medical Conditions

This policy does not cover any Pre-Existing Medical Conditions under Sections A – I below. If You have Pre-Existing Medical Conditions, this cover may not be right for You. Before You make Your Relevant Travel Purchase, You should consider whether a medical condition is considered Pre-Existing based on the Pre-Existing Medical Condition definition within this Policy.

COVID-19

What is covered?

This Policy provides cover for costs incurred from having to Cancel, Curtail or change Your Trip because You or Your Travelling Companion contract Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19). The Policy also provides cover for overseas medical emergency expenses incurred on Your Overseas Return Trip, and transportation of remains or burial if You die during Your Trip, as a result of You having contracted COVID-19 which was first confirmed or diagnosed while on Your Trip. See Section A – Trip Cancellation and Amendment Cover (specified Event 1) and Section B – Overseas Medical Emergency Expenses Cover for details.

What is not covered?

This Policy does not cover, and We will not (under any other part of the Policy) pay for claims of any other kind directly arising from, relating to or in any way connected with COVID-19 (or any mutation or variation thereof) and/or its outbreak, apart from the cover provided in Section A – Trip Cancellation and Amendment Cover (specified Event 1) and Section B – Overseas Medical Emergency Expenses Cover.

Pregnancy

It's important to understand how pregnancy affects Your cover under this Policy.

You will not be covered for costs associated with the actual birth of Your child or any pregnancy related medical conditions You are suffering from. For more information see – When are You not covered? (below).

When does the travel insurance cover You, if You are pregnant?

If You are pregnant, You are covered for claims that arise from Your pregnancy, under:

1. Section B – Overseas Medical Emergency Expenses Cover when You are on an Overseas Return Trip, if You have a sudden and unexpected Injury or Illness which:
 - a) occurs before the end of the 23rd week of Your pregnancy; and
 - b) is not otherwise excluded within this Policy.

2. Section A – Trip Cancellation and Amendment Cover; if You have a sudden and unexpected Injury or Illness arising from or related to Your pregnancy that prevents You from going on the Trip or continuing the Trip, and which:
 - a) is confirmed by medical evidence provided by a treating Doctor; and
 - b) is not otherwise excluded within this Policy.

How is the number of weeks of pregnancy calculated?

The number of weeks of Your pregnancy is calculated from the last known date of Your menstrual period or calculated from a staging ultrasound.

When are You not covered?

- You are not covered for any costs arising from or related to:
- a) any Pre-Existing Medical Condition;
 - b) any costs under Section B – Overseas Medical Emergency Expenses Cover after the end of the 23rd week of Your pregnancy;
 - c) any costs under Section B – Overseas Medical Emergency Expenses Cover arising from childbirth or the health of a newborn child. This exclusion applies irrespective of the stage of pregnancy at which the child is born. A newborn (whether premature or otherwise) is not considered a Covered Person under the Policy if the child was born on the Trip;
 - d) any costs under Section B – Overseas Medical Emergency Expenses Cover arising from or relating to an abortion, unless this is to save the life of the mother following an Injury or Illness;
 - e) any costs under Section B – Overseas Medical Emergency Expenses Cover arising from fertility treatment or treatment associated with an assisted reproduction program including but not limited to, in vitro fertilisation (IVF).

Excluded Sports and Activities

- a sporting event where You may be eligible to receive a fee, including prize money.

Please see the definition of 'Excluded Sports and Activities' for a full list of activities and sports which are not covered under this Policy.

Travelling Against Medical or Government Advice

If You are advised not to travel or not to go on a particular Trip (for example, to a specific destination), You must comply with that advice. You will not be covered under Sections A – I of this Policy if You start a Trip against the following advice:

- i) a treating Doctor advises You not to travel; or
- ii) an Australian State or Territory or the Australian Federal Government or an Australian government agency (such as DFAT) advises You not to travel (for example, through border closures or 'Do Not Travel' travel advisories). This exclusion applies even if You have been granted a travel exemption by an Australian State or Territory, the Australian Federal Government or an Australian government agency (such as DFAT) to travel.

If You are advised not to travel after You have made Your Relevant Travel Purchase, You may be entitled to cancel or change Your Trip and make a claim under Section A – Trip Cancellation and Amendment Cover (subject to the terms and conditions of this Policy).

Return Trips Only

You are only eligible for cover under sections A-I of this Policy for return Trips i.e. trips that begin and end from Your Home or Work in Australia. It does not cover One-Way Trips where You have no plans to return to Australia. If you have not made Your Relevant Travel Purchase prior to your Trip departure date, you are not eligible for cover under this Policy. Please refer to the Eligibility for Insurance Table for more information.

Fraud

Chubb considers it important for customers to take insurance fraud seriously. Creation or submission of false documents, or exaggerating a genuine claim is considered insurance fraud. Such behaviour has a negative impact on the cost of insurance for all customers.

We utilise Our dedicated special investigations unit at Chubb to detect and investigate selected claims daily. When the evidence supports it, Chubb will report suspect claims to the police and dedicate resources to assisting any potential criminal prosecutions.

Goods and Services Tax

If We agree to pay a claim under Your Policy, We will base any claim payment on the Goods and Services Tax (GST) inclusive costs (up to the relevant benefit limit).

We will apply depreciation (wear and tear) in determining the value of Your Personal Baggage and Valuables as specified in the table below.

Depreciation considers an item's age, damage or change that is caused to an item when its being used normally. Depreciation will be calculated from the date of purchase of the item until the date of the claimable Event, based on the original purchase price.

For example: If You purchased a Smartphone for $1,000, went on a Trip and the Smartphone was stolen, We will calculate the number of months between the date You purchased Your Smartphone and the claimable Event date. Suppose the number of months is 6, We will calculate the depreciation as follows:

- Purchase price – depreciation – Excess = amount payable
- Number of months = 6
- 6 multiplied by depreciation for Smartphone of 2.5% = 15%
- Depreciation: $1,000 multiplied by 15% = $150
- Excess = $500
- Amount payable by Us for Your stolen Smartphone: $1,000 – $150 – $500 = $350

Depreciation Table

Items	Deduction for each month of age of the item at the time of Event	Maximum Applicable Depreciation
Electronic equipment	2.5%	65%
Camera (including accessories)	2.5%	65%
Sunglasses	1.5%	65%
Smartphone	2.5%	65%
Laptop	2.5%	65%
Jewellery	0%	0%
Sports equipment	2.0%	65%
Cosmetics	2.5%	65%
Clothing	1.9%	65%
Other personal items	1.5%	65%
