Cover Sections, Benefits and Benefit Limits

The cover We offer will be dependent on Your Trip (overseas or domestic). The cover sections, benefits and benefits limits will vary based on Your Trip.

Not all benefits listed within each cover section are available for a Trip. Please refer to the Schedule of Benefits Table within this Policy to confirm the cover and limits offered for Your Trip.

The Schedule of Benefits table provides the limit(s) we will pay to each of the cover sections for a Trip. It includes maximum amounts payable under each section together with any applicable sub-limit, waiting period and the Excess that applies.

Exclusions within this Policy

As with all insurance, there are certain exclusions that apply. Some exclusions only apply to certain benefits under the Policy, while other exclusions apply to all claims. You should read the following:

- General Exclusions which apply to all claims;
- the Special Exclusion (COVID-19) which applies to all claims; and
- each cover section includes information about what We cover, any Terms and Conditions that applies, and exclusions under the heading 'Exclusions under ...'.

To ensure You understand when We will pay for a claim, You should read each section carefully, including each benefit covered under 'What We Cover' together with any 'Terms and Conditions' and 'Exclusions applicable ...' under each cover section.

Special Exclusion (COVID-19)

This Policy does not cover, and We will not (under any sections) pay for claims of any kind directly arising from or relating to the Coronavirus Disease 19 (COVID-19) (or any mutation or variation thereof) and/or its outbreak.

To the extent that any term or condition in the Policy may be inconsistent with this exclusion, this exclusion shall prevail.

Automatic End Date Extension

In the event that You are prevented from completing the return leg of a Trip as a result of an unavoidable delay from a Licensed Airplane, Ship, Bus or Train, We will automatically provide an extension of cover for up to 3 days for You to return to Australia.

In the event You are hospitalised as a result of an Injury or Illness covered under this Policy, during Your Overseas Return Trip, the following cover sections:

- (B) Overseas Medical Emergency;
- (C) Accidental Death;
- (H) Personal Baggage, Valuables, Money and Documents;
- (I) Hijack Cover;
- (J) Personal Liability;

will automatically extend beyond the return date until one of the following first occurs:

- a) after 12 months from the date of the Injury or Illness; or
- b) upon Your return to Australia; or
- c) You have been declared fit to travel by a treating Doctor or when recommended by Chubb Assistance's medical officer to return to Australia but You decide to remain overseas.

Excess

Where applicable, an Excess is applied for each Covered Person, for each Event.

If a claim is covered, the Excess is deducted from the amount We will pay and before any relevant depreciation and limits have been applied to the claim amount.

The Excess amount is specified in the Schedule of Benefits table.

An Excess may also be a waiting period, which is the amount of time You have to wait until the benefit may become payable.

Example

The below examples are provided for illustrative purposes only. Each claim will be assessed individually, based on the facts relative to the specific claim

Example A:

Anna books accommodation to the Sunshiny caravan park. Her Trip with the family is in summer, which is 3 months away. A week before the start of the family Trip, her son has an accident at school and breaks his leg. Unfortunately, he needs surgery and the Doctor confirms its best to be at home for the recovery. Anna paid $1,200 for the accommodation. The Excess is $250.

a) Check the total cover limits and sub-limits in Schedule of Benefits. The amount claimable is below these limits

b) Deduct the Excess of $250

Calculation for the amount payable by Us:

Accommodation – Excess = amount payable

$$1,200 - $250 = $950$

Example B:

Jane travels to Brazil and while she is in Brazil her laptop is stolen. She reports the theft to the police and provides Us with the required documentation. Jane paid $6,000 for her laptop 12 months prior to this Event. Jane's Excess is $250.

a) Establish original purchase price of the laptop: $6,000

b) Apply depreciation*:

- 2.5% per month for 12 months = 30% depreciation.
- 30% of $6,000 = $1,800 total depreciation.

c) Establish current value of the laptop by subtracting depreciation from the purchase price of the laptop

- $$6,000 - $1,800 = $4,200$

d) Check the total and per item limit shown in the Schedule of Benefits and select the lesser of the current value of the laptop or the item sub-limit. If the per item limit is $2,500 which is lower than the current value $4,200, We take the lower number = $2,500

e) Deduct the Excess of $250

f) Calculation for the amount payable by Us:

Limit per item – Excess = amount payable

$$2,500 - $250 = $2,500$

Example C:

Rob and his wife travelled to France for 14 days. On the 4th day of their trip, Rob slips down the stairs at the hotel. Thankfully it's not a major injury, but he did twist his ankle and needs to seek medical attention. He was billed $500 for the doctor's appointment including some scans and medication. On the 8th day, Rob had his laptop stolen which is worth $1,000. Unfortunately, on the last day of their trip, Rob's wife then lost her smartphone. When they return to Australia, Rob submitted a claim for the 3 Events. As Rob and his wife had 3 Events during their trip to France, an Excess would be applied to each of the Events (and Covered Persons).

Claim 1: $500 Medical costs – $250 excess = $250 amount payable Claim 2: $1,000 laptop – $150 depreciation – $250 excess = $600 amount payable Claim 3: $900 smartphone – $250 excess = $650 amount payable

Total amount payable by Us = $1,500

*For depreciation details, please review Section H – Personal Baggage, Valuables, Money and Documents Cover

Depreciation applicable to Personal Baggage, Valuables, Money and Documents Cover

We will apply depreciation (and wear and tear) in determining the value of Your Personal Baggage and Valuables as specified in the table below.

Depreciation considers an item's age, damage or change that is caused to an item when its being used normally. Depreciation will be calculated from the date of purchase of the item until the date of the claimable Event, based on the original purchase price.

For example: If You purchased a mobile phone for $1,000, went on a Trip and the phone was stolen, We will calculate the number of months between the date You purchased Your phone and the claimable Event date. Suppose the number of months is 6, We will calculate the depreciation as follows:

- Purchase price – depreciation – Excess = amount payable

- Number of months = 6
- 6 multiplied by depreciation for electronic equipment of 2.5% = 15%

Process

Please provide us with your claim or policy number (if applicable) and as much information as you can about the reason for your complaint.

Our response

We will acknowledge receipt of your complaint within 1 business day of receiving it from you.

We will investigate your complaint and keep you informed of the progress of our investigation at least every 10 business days and will make a decision in relation to your complaint in writing within 30 calendar days. If we are unable to make this decision within this timeframe, we will provide you with a reason for the delay and advise of your right to take your complaint to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA) as detailed below, subject to its Rules. If your complaint falls outside the AFCA Rules, you can seek independent legal advice or access any other external dispute resolution options that may be available to you.

To the extent allowable at law, if you request copies of the information we relied on to make a decision about your complaint, we must provide it within 10 business days of your request. Please see the General Insurance Code of Practice 2020 (codeofpractice.com.au) or contact us for further details.

Please note that if we have resolved your complaint to your satisfaction by the end of the fifth (5th) business day after we have received it, and you have not requested that we provide you a response in writing, we are not required to provide a written response. However, this exemption does not apply to complaints regarding a declined claim, the value of a claim, or about financial hardship.

External Dispute Resolution

If you are dissatisfied with our complaint determination, or we are unable to resolve your complaint to your satisfaction within 30 days, you may refer your complaint to AFCA, subject to its Rules.

AFCA is an independent external dispute resolution scheme approved by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC). We are a member of this scheme and we agree to be bound by its determinations about a dispute. AFCA provides fair and independent financial services complaint resolution that is free to consumers.

You may contact AFCA at any time at:

Financial Claims Scheme

We are an insurance company authorised under the Insurance Act 1973 (Cth) (Insurance Act) to carry on general insurance business in Australia by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA) and are subject to the prudential requirements of the Insurance Act.

The Insurance Act 1984 (Cth) is designed to ensure that, under all reasonable circumstances, financial promises made by Us are met within a stable, efficient and competitive financial system.

Because of this We are exempted from the requirement to meet the compensation arrangements Australian financial services licensees must have in place to compensate retail clients for loss or damage suffered because of breaches by the licensee or its representatives of Chapter 7 of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth). We have compensation arrangements in place that are in accordance with the Insurance Act.

In the unlikely event that We were to become insolvent and Were unable to meet Our obligations under the Policy, a person entitled to claim may be entitled to payment under the Financial Claims Scheme. Access to the Scheme is subject to eligibility criteria. Please refer to <https://www.fcs.gov.au> for more information.
