Part C: Credit Guide

What should you do if you have a complaint?

We have reduced the timeframe in which we will aim to resolve new complaints from 45 days to 30 days. To reflect this, we have amended the last paragraph in this clause.

Current	Replacement
Once You have contacted the Credit Provider, We will begin the process of investigating and resolving Your complaint. We will try to resolve Your complaint quickly and fairly. We will endeavour to resolve Your complaint within 3 business days, however some complaints do take more time than others. If We anticipate that Your complaint will take longer than 21 days to resolve, We will contact You within this time to provide You with an update on our progress. Should it take longer than 45 days, We will contact You in writing to provide an explanation of the reason for the delay.	Once You have contacted the Credit Provider, We will begin the process of investigating and resolving Your complaint. If We are unable to resolve Your complaint within 30 days (or within 21 days if it involves a hardship notice, default notice or request to postpone enforcement), We will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) tell You the reasons for the delay; b) tell You the date by which You can reasonably expect to hear the outcome of our investigation; and c) give You monthly updates on the progress; d) tell You about Your right to complain to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA) if You are dissatisfied; and e) provide You with contact details for AFCA (also set out below).

Current	Replacement
	For complaints involving hardship notice, default notice or request to postpone enforcement, exceptions apply to the 21 day timeframe if We do not have sufficient information to make a decision or We reach an agreement with you. If We require further information from You, then We will request it within 21 days of receiving the complaint.
